#29DTD - DAY 8

Look at your favorites or idols. Were their opportunities made or found?

If you think that they were made, what were the ingredients?

How can you make your own opportunities?

Start as local as possible and branch out from there.

Is there anyone in your environment with whom you can co-create?

Identify five transformative surprises you've experienced in your career already:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

How did you react to those surprises? Were you able to turn them into positives? If not, how could you leverage surprises into opportunities in the future?
